Invitation

Dear Friends,

We are pleased to announce and cordially invite you to attend the Annual Conference 2016 of North Zone AICC RCOG (UK) to be held in New Delhi on 9th and 10th September 2016. This prestigious academic event is being organized in association with Institutes of Obstetrics & Gynaecology and Fetal Medicine - Indraprastha Apollo Hospitals, AOGD and Department of Obstetrics & Gynaecology - Maulana Azad Medical College, New Delhi.

We have specifically selected the 3 most challenging and extremely relevant Obstetrics topics for this conference which are crucial to saving lives of mothers and babies – CTG, Perinatal Autopsy and PPH. The conference is specially privileged to have none other but masters of the subject – Professor S. Arulkumaran and Dr Margaret J Evans to update us on these highly important topics. We are sure, you would find this conference very informative and valuable to enrich your knowledge and clinical expertise.

Please do check our website www.aicccognzindia.com regularly for updates on this conference as well as on other RCOG training courses.

We look forward to welcoming you at this academic event.

With kind regards

Dr Sohani Verma
